

Honor Roll

As of June 2015

Since 1989, Connecticut Public Television original productions have earned 2 National Daytime Emmy Awards, 104 Regional Emmy Awards, 410 Regional Emmy Award Nominations, 7 CINE Golden Eagle Awards, one Gracie Allen Award, as well as several other special awards and acknowledgments.

WNPR has also been the recipient of many esteemed awards, including two George Foster Peabody Awards, five Ohio State Awards, two Gracie Allen Awards and over 60 Associated Press Awards, including eight Mark Twain Awards for Overall Station Excellence. In addition, for the past 10 years, Faith Middleton has been voted Best Radio Talk-Show Host by Connecticut Magazine readers.

Public Radio News Directors, Inc. honored Where We Live as best "Call-in Show" in 2010 for the episode "A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood," and grabbed 2nd place in the annual contest for "Best Call-In Show" in Public Radio at the annual PRNDI conference. The show was also voted 2nd best "News and Public Affairs" Program for the episode entitled "Sexual Assault on College Campuses." In addition, The Colin McEnroe Show won a 2nd place award for "Best Interview" for "The Heart Beth Bradley." PRNDI is the organization representing news directors in the public radio system, and its awards are the only ones pitting public radio station vs. public radio station.

CPTV and WNPR produce the highest quality local programming with the financial support from our members and supporting organizations throughout Connecticut. Here are some of the many honors bestowed to Connecticut Public Broadcasting since 1995. Share our pride in what we have accomplished.

Connecticut Public Radio

Broadcast Awards and Nominations 2010

WNPR's Harriet Jones was named the winner of a 2011 Murrow for Continuing Coverage in Region 10 (Large Market/New England). She was honored for her coverage of flooding in Southeastern Connecticut, its aftermath, and the impact on the local business community.

In February 2011, WNPR's Senior Producer, Catie Talarski was awarded Honorable Mention in the Broadcast Category in the 2011 Mental Illness Awareness Media Awards Competition.

In addition, WNPR's producer/host Colin McEnroe was awarded 1st Place in the Broadcast Category for "Phobias" and 2nd Place for "Hoarding."

All entries were informative and provided an invaluable service to the community.

On March 8, WNPR was the recipient of the Connecticut Light and Power Company Award for Outstanding contributions to the Main Street Revitalization for "Where We Live".

Reporter Lucy Nalpathanchil received an award by the Connecticut Associated Press Broadcasters Association, in the category of Enterprise Reporting.

Public Radio News Directors, Inc. honored Where We Live as best "Call-in Show" in 2010 for the episode "A Beautiful Day in the Neighborhood."

Where We Live was also the recipient of a 2nd place PRNDI in the annual contest for "Best Call-In Show" in Public Radio for the episode "Sexual Assault on Campus."

The Colin McEnroe Show won second place in the "Best Interview" category for The Heart of Beth Bradley at the 2011 PRNDI Conference
